

Join Us In Making A Difference

Are you a business owner or leader in your organization seeking to make a meaningful impact in your community? Partner with Harbor House's Community Advocacy Team to strengthen your company's response to domestic violence. We are committed to fostering collaborations with organizations like yours that share our mission and values. We believe that by working together, we can amplify our impact and create lasting change in the lives of those affected by domestic violence.

Why Partner?

Social Responsibility: By partnering with Harbor House, you demonstrate your commitment to social responsibility. Join us in our mission to support survivors of domestic violence and prevent future incidents through education and empowerment.

Community Engagement: Engage with your local community in a meaningful and impactful way. Partner with Harbor House to launch events that aim to bring awareness to the impact of domestic violence and empower our community.

Training and Education: Gain valuable insights and skills through our FREE specialized business training sessions. Learn how to recognize signs of domestic violence, provide support to employees or clients affected by abuse, and create a safe and inclusive environment within your organization.

Consultation: Work with a member of our team to assess and enhance your organization's response to domestic violence. Develop policies, protocols, and resources that prioritize safety and support for both employees and clients.

Get Involved

Training and Consultation: Equip your employees with the knowledge and skills to recognize and respond to domestic violence. Our customized training sessions empower individuals to support colleagues, clients, and community members in crisis. This can range from one-on-one sessions to company-wide seminars. We want to work to provide the best possible opportunity that fits your organization.

Volunteerism and Engagement: Encourage your employees to volunteer their time and talents to support Harbor House's initiatives. Whether through fundraising events, community outreach efforts, or skills-based volunteering, every contribution makes a difference.

Sponsorship: Support Harbor House's programs and services through corporate sponsorship opportunities and other financial donations. Organizations provide critical investments that drive our mission forward. Your financial contributions enable us to expand our reach, provide essential resources to survivors, and advocate for systemic change.

Partner with Harbor House today and become a catalyst for change in your community. For more information contact a member of our Community Advocacy Team at 815-932-5814 or info@harborhousedv.org
